

Independent Directors – Communication Records 2025

Summary review for the communication between independent directors and chief audit executive

The Internal Audit department provides quarterly updates to the Audit Committee regarding the execution of the audit plan, including findings on internal control deficiencies, abnormalities, and improvements made. The department also responds to questions from independent directors and implements improvements as instructed.

The department submits completed audit reports to the independent directors every month. Any questions or instructions from the directors are addressed through phone calls, emails, or in-person discussions.
